

Khrushchev Gazes At Berlin's Wall, Waves To West

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev today visited communism's bleak and hated wall dividing Berlin and gazed thoughtfully for a moment at the American flag fluttering over nearby Checkpoint Charlie.

Standing at the point where U.S. and Soviet tanks confronted each other in the Berlin crisis of October 1961, he waved cheerfully to people in West Berlin.

The premier made his excursion to the wall at midday after hearing Wladyslaw Gomulka, Polish Communist chief, hail him as the man who saved the world from nuclear catastrophe during the Cuban crisis.

With East German party chief Walter Ulbricht at his side, Khrushchev then went to the wall. He showed no inclination to accept West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt's suggestion that he look at the wall from West Berlin.

He approached the border at the U.S. sector's Friedrichstrasse crossing point.

Brandt in an interview early this month, suggested that Khrushchev get a first-hand picture of the real conditions in both parts of divided Berlin. But Khrushchev made no move to cross over into the West.

In bright sunshine, Khrushchev stood at the first red-and-white striped pole barring entry into East Berlin. Maj. Gen. Helmut Poppe, the East German commandant of East Berlin, stood at his side explaining the layout of the crossing point.

On the western side, an American Army officer in steel helmet and combat equipment stood near the dividing line watching the activity in the east.

A line of 10 East German border guard officers stopped pedestrians crossing while Khrushchev was at the checkpoint.

The Soviet premier walked forward to the white line across Friedrichstrasse marking the border between East and West.

Standing two feet from the line Khrushchev grinned and waved cheerfully to a group of Western newsmen six feet away from him.

Then Khrushchev made a gesture with his hand, indicating it was time to go back. The group turned around and walked back into East Berlin.

Budget Of 98.8 Billion Keyed To Tax Slashes

Trip To Italy By Kennedy May Be Expanded

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomats speculated today that President Kennedy's trip to Italy might be expanded to include some other European countries.

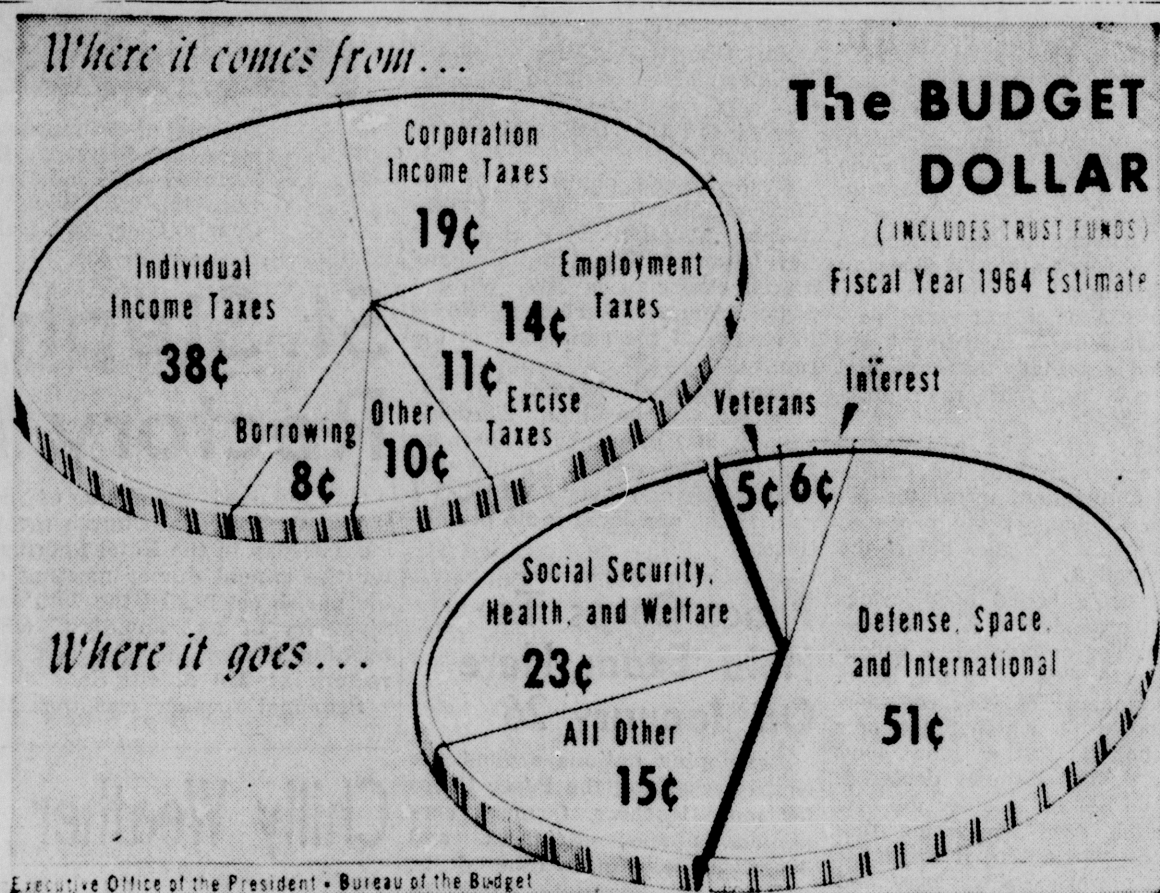

The White House announced Wednesday that Kennedy had accepted an invitation from Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani to visit Italy this year. The date is yet to be determined.

Administration officials said that the President plans to go only to Italy and there is no plan for him to visit anywhere else.

However, Western diplomats said it would be surprising if disclosure of the visit to Rome did not bring feelers from other European capitals for a Kennedy stop while he is in Europe.

Principal interest in diplomatic quarters focused on two possibilities:

1. That Kennedy might see French President Charles de Gaulle for a discussion of the split between France and the United States as well as other North Atlantic Treaty Organization nations over the formation of an allied nuclear striking force.
2. That a meeting might be arranged between Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev for an informal talk on East-West problems. It has been about a year and a half since Kennedy and Khrushchev met.

President Aims To Put New Life In U. S. Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy proposed today an unprecedented $98.8-billion budget keyed to deficit-cutting tax cuts which he said would spark the nation toward full employment, production and purchasing power.

Kennedy's spending program for the year starting July 1 would top even the highest of wartime budgets, $98.3 billion in 1944-45, and shoot the public debt to a record $315.6 billion.

Nonetheless, he insisted it was shaped to put new life into the economy and insure "efficient and frugal" conduct of the government.

In a message sending his mid-term budget to Congress, Kennedy acknowledged the $13.5-billion, three-year tax cutting plan he unveiled earlier this week would at first add red ink to federal finances. He estimated the deficit would rise from the $8.8 billion now anticipated this year to $11.9 billion.

Over Half For Defense

Recommendations Kennedy sent to Capitol Hill included:

- Over-all defense spending of $55.4 billion, up $2.4 billion from the current year; emphasis on a strong retaliatory force, flexible conventional forces, better air and missile defenses.
- Space programs costing $4.2 billion, an increase of $1.8 billion; manned space flight efforts to get most of the total, with the goal of getting a man to the moon.
- Foreign aid totaling $4,945,000,000 with special attention for countries willing to help themselves.
- Another bid for medical care for the aged financed through Social Security taxes; a new request for a Cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs. Detailed recommendations will be made later for aid to education, farm and other programs.

For peacetime, the anticipated $11.9-billion deficit would be second only to the $12.4 billion incurred under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958-59. But Kennedy argued a 1963-64 deficit is unavoidable, even at the present level of taxes. The choice, he said, lies between accepting a "chronic deficit of inertia" due to inadequate economic growth and a temporary deficit caused by programs designed to generate the economy, increase revenues and eventually achieve budget surpluses.

Investment In Future

"The first type of deficit is a sign of waste and weakness," he argued. "The second is an investment in the future."

Kennedy foresaw receipts of $86.9 billion. He offered this reasoning to conclude that reduced taxes will start producing new revenues in the year ahead:

"Tax cuts taking effect in 1963—he didn't say when—would by themselves decrease government income for the fiscal year some $5.3 billion. But two factors trim the net loss from what might have been expected to $2.7 billion. These are a speedup in collection of corporation taxes, which now lag six months, and the advance in taxable income anticipated from the stimulus of a cut in rates. And despite this loss, receipts actually will increase $1.4 billion from the 1962-63 estimate of $85.5 billion because of an enhanced economy."

Thus Kennedy sought to rebut conservatives in Congress who denounce rising deficits as fiscal irresponsibility and are reluctant to cut taxes when the government ledger is in the red.

Details Held Back

Nowhere did Kennedy name the effective date in 1963 on which he based his projection of a tax cut's effect on revenues. He held back most details for a special message.

Space Spending Boost Foresees Flight To Moon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A big boost in spending for the U.S. space agency was recommended today by President Kennedy to blaze a trail for American landing on the moon by this decade's end and put more hustle in the space race.

He asked Congress to approve $4.2 billion for fiscal 1964—$1.8 billion more than in 1963 and more than triple the amount spent in 1962.

"The space programs of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will continue to expand as this nation strives to maintain a position of world leadership in the exploration and utilization of space," Kennedy said.

Nuclear Rockets Next?

In addition, the administration sought Congress' okay for $184,880,000 spending by the Atomic Energy Commission for space projects—an increase of some $40.4 million over this year. This would cover a stepped up effort to develop nuclear powered rockets and advanced devices for supplying communications and other satellites with auxiliary nuclear power.

Thus, for all space projects by the two agencies, the administration sought approval for spending $4,384,880,000 in the coming fiscal year compared with $2,544,449,000 in the current one.

In his budget message to Congress, Kennedy noted that defense spending and the growth in the space program had accounted for the major part of the increase in the budget since his administration took office.

More Research

The President added that efforts are being concentrated on the continued development of the complex Apollo spacecraft—the vehicle slated for the lunar mission—and the giant advanced Saturn rocket needed to boost the Apollo to the moon.

He also said the budget provides for strong research efforts aimed at developing the technology needed for advanced space missions "including future manned space flight and unmanned explorations of Venus and Mars."

Declaring the recent Mariner fly-by of the planet Venus proves U.S. progress in unmanned space investigations, the President said that during the coming fiscal year, the development of geophysical, astronomical, meteorological and communications satellites would also continue.

Kennedy recommended spending $2,713,000 for manned space flight, compared with an estimated $1,376,000,000 for the current year, and $547 million in fiscal 1962.

For unmanned investigations of space spending of $593 million is asked, compared with $441 million this year.

Katanga Peace Terms Discussed

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Katanga's elusive President Moise Tshombe, reportedly ready to abandon the tactics which for 30 months frustrated Congo unity plans, was due back in Elisabethville today for talks to complete Katanga's surrender.

Awaiting Tshombe were firm demands for unopposed entry for U.N. troops into Kolwezi, his last stronghold 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville.

A spokesman at U.N. headquarters in New York said Tshombe would probably meet with George Sherry, the No. 2 U.N. representative in Elisabethville. The chief U.N. representative, Eliud Mathu, is reported ill.

The threat of mass destruction in Kolwezi, where Tshombe's supporters have mined industrial and power facilities for destruction, has kept a U.N. combat column some miles southeast of the mining center.

Once the U.N. entry into Kolwezi is arranged, a U.N. spokesman said, talks can begin with Tshombe on arrangements to put U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's plan for Congo reunification into full effect.

Thant's unity plan calls for a

Funds Requested For Isle Royale

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approximately $125,356,000 were requested today by President Kennedy for the National Park Service during the year beginning July 1.

In his budget message to Congress, Kennedy asked for $8,173,196 more for the parks service than was provided during the current fiscal year which ends June 30.

The National Park Service supplied this breakdown of the requested appropriations:

- Isle Royale National Park, $406,800, including $140,000 for employee housing and $108,700 for a shops and storage building on Mott Island.
- For roads and trails: Michigan $15,000—Isle Royale, $15,000.

Plant Blows Up On Long Island

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—A series of explosions blew a magazine plant into bits and shook three Long Island villages today.

People were thrown out of bed, and lights suddenly flashed on in homes in the New York City suburban area with a population of about 80,000.

Hempstead and Mineola, the Nassau County seat, were shaken in addition to Garden City.

Ninety families were evacuated from two apartment houses temporarily.

Police said the seven explosions—of ever-increasing intensity—were in fuel oil tanks in the basement of the one-story brick magazine plant.

Officials had no immediate conjecture on the cause of the blasts at the plant of the Direct Mail Advertising Reporter, a nationally circulated monthly publication, at 224 7th St., Garden City.

No one was believed to have been in the magazine plant, and no injuries were reported.

Fire followed the explosions. Firemen got the blaze under control in a short time.

Big Job Ahead For Lawmakers In Tax Overhaul

WASHINGTON (AP)—Next July 1 is President Kennedy's new target for personal income tax cuts starting his three-year, $13.5 billion tax reduction program, his budget message indicated today.

The retreat from Kennedy's original hope of cuts retroactive to Jan. 1 apparently was forced by the go-slow reaction of key members of Congress. They dislike the towering deficit that goes along with Kennedy's record $98.8 billion spending schedule.

The legislators' caution, combined with the sheer workload of writing perhaps the most sweeping tax overhaul in history, could result in an even later starting date. Some members of Congress want to wait until Jan. 1, 1964.

"Reforms" Included

That is the date on which Kennedy proposed to begin the second stage of his program—corporation rate cuts, further individual rate reductions, and some of the "reforms" which are supposed to recoup $3.5 billion of the lost revenues.

Such a six-month delay would reduce the near-record deficit of $11.9 billion which the President foresees for fiscal 1964, the government year which starts next July 1.

Nowhere in the message did he state that July 1 is now his target for tax relief. But it was clearly implied in the projected budget estimates, as well as in the omission of any reference to the old Jan. 1 date. Kennedy said merely that some cuts "would start in the calendar year 1963."

The budget assumed very modest business gains this year. Its forecast of $86.9 billion of tax collections was based on an estimated national output of $578 billion. This would be only a $24 billion increase from 1962, smaller than the disappointing gains of the past year.

Surpluses Predicted

Personal income will increase $19 billion from last year to a 1963 total of $459 billion, the message predicted, and corporation profits will advance by $2.1 billion to $53 billion.

The production, income and profits estimates are all potential records. But the rate of advance would hardly be sufficient, according to government economists, to prevent further increases in unemployment.

Kennedy blamed the nation's slow economic growth in part on "the restraining effects of the tax system." Tax reduction now will bring budget surpluses in the future, he argued.

Castro To Free Second Plane Load Of U.S. Citizens

HAVANA (AP)—A Swiss diplomat said today Fidel Castro's government is expected to allow a second plane load of Cuban-American citizens to go to the United States Friday.

The envoy, whose government handles U.S. interests in Cuba, said he did not know how many would be sent this time. More than 700 Americans have filed applications for repatriation.

The first group of 68 men, women and children of U.S. citizenship arrived in Miami, Fla., by special plane last Sunday.

None of the estimated 25 to 30 Americans held prisoner by Castro's government was on the first flight, and there was no indication any would be released Friday.

There are about 900 American citizens still in Cuba, most of them children. About 170 are working with Castro's government.

Polish Red Boss Joins Khrushchev In Rap At Peking

BERLIN (AP)—Polish Communist chief Wladyslaw Gomulka gave full support today to Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the Moscow-Peking dispute over Communism party's sixth congress in East Berlin that Khrushchev is calling the tune correctly for the world Communist movement.

"The Soviet Union is the most important, most decisive force in the Socialist camp," Gomulka said.

He echoed Khrushchev's call Wednesday for the Chinese to stop their public name-calling.

"The differing opinions within the Communist world movement should be cleared up without public polemics through internal discussions," Gomulka said.

Kin Of Kennedy, Trouble-Shooter, Due In Michigan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic National Committee has named President Kennedy's brother-in-law, Stephen E. Smith, as party troubleshooter, and one of Smith's first assignments is Michigan.

Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey said Wednesday Smith would try to restore Democratic harmony in some of the states where it counts.

Bailey said he and Smith will go to New York shortly to see what the trouble there is. After that, Bailey said, Smith will turn his attention to trying to further party unity in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Democrats in all four states failed to elect their candidates for governor last November.

Gales Off Japan Drown Fishermen

TOKYO (AP)—Seven fishermen were drowned and 22 others were feared lost in blizzard-swept waters off the northern coast of Japan, the coast guard said today.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour capsize and wrecked 28 small fishing boats in the area.

On the east coast heavy snows delayed trains several hours.

The temperature in Tokyo dropped to 23 degrees, the lowest this year.

Negro New GOP Attorney General

BOSTON (AP)—Edward W. Brooke began his first full day today as attorney general of Massachusetts.

He is the first Negro elected to attorney general in any state.

The only Republican elected to statewide office in Massachusetts in 1962, Brooke took the oath of office Wednesday.

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A vigorously honking car pulled alongside Patrolman Wayne Barnes' cruiser.

"I want to be arrested," the driver said.

"Why?" asked Barnes.

"I stole this car."

Barnes obliged and a man booked as Edward Giles, 22, of Little Rock, Ark., is in city jail.

Giles reported he stole the car Friday night in Little Rock.

Showdown Near In Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A board of labor relations experts appointed by President Kennedy goes into emergency session here today in a last-ditch effort to settle the Atlantic and Gulf coasts dock strike.

Kennedy said in appointing the board that the 26-day-old strike is "doing intolerable injury to the national welfare" and disrupting vital commerce in the Free World.

Kennedy indicated that if the board's efforts failed, he would ask Congress to force an end to the strike of 60,000 longshoremen that has crippled shipping in ports from Maine to Texas.

The head of the board, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., told newsmen:

"I have never seen a labor case that could not be settled by good-faith negotiations between the party litigants."

Thomas Gleason, executive vice president and chief negotiator for the striking AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association, said union representatives were ready to meet with the board today.

Train Drags Car; Woman Driver, 20, Leaps To Safety

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—A freight train slammed into an automobile and carried it along for 60 yards before the woman driver leaped to safety Wednesday.

The woman, Mrs. Ronald Scooby 20, suffered a split lip.

"It's funny about that lip," she said later. "I was so shook up I think I bit it after the wreck."

Charter Opposed By 'Save Mackie' Forces In State

Road contractors and present and former state highway officials who have banded together in an effort to oppose adoption of the proposed new Michigan constitution at the April 1 election have been criticized in recent weeks by editorial writers in several Michigan daily and weekly newspapers.

Noting that members of the committee "came from the highway construction business and the ripe field of politics," the Detroit Free Press said in its issue of December 5:

"Every proposal in the new Constitution is as good or better than the present Constitution. The executive, legislative and judicial processes are all improved by the new document. . . . This opposition is based strictly on what Harry Truman likes to call 'selfish interests.' They've got a good thing going and want to keep it that way."

Big Publicity Staff

The Saginaw News, in its issue of Dec. 11, takes the State Highway Department to task for sending out a lengthy handout to newspapers, magazines, radio and television stations. The handout, says the News, indicates that the bipartisan highway commission proposed by the new Constitution would "insulate" the commission from the people.

The editorial continues: "We haven't noticed that the Conservation Commission, the Mental Health Commission, or any other governor-appointed commissions, or any of the department directors they have named, are doing anything but what they consider 'best for the people' . . . Neither have we noted that they are employing anything near the publicity staff maintained by the Highway Department."

In its issue of Dec. 13, the Gratiot County Herald at Ithaca suggests that it is only normal that Highway Commissioner Mackie would fight the change from an elected commissioner to a four-man bipartisan commission. The Gratiot editor goes on to say:

"Save Mackie's Job"

"But to seek defeat of the entire constitution because of one section can hardly be regarded as an unselfish attitude, or one based upon public weal. If the constitution is adopted by Michigan voters in April, it will not be because a majority of people agree with its every provision, but because they believe that as a whole, it is a vast improvement over the present constitution."

The Save Michigan Roads Committee "is phony from beginning to end," says The Detroit News in its issue of Dec. 6. "The purpose is not to 'save our roads' since the roads will be built whether the Constitution is adopted or rejected. The real name should be 'Save Mackie's Job Committee' or 'Beat the Constitution Committee.'"

Continuing, The News editorial says: "It may be that the contractors feel that they have no alternative to membership and contribution because of the economic pressure that can be exerted upon them. There is an alternative and we trust that some of the wisest heads in the (road-building) industry will take it. They should tell the commissioner politely that they are in the business of building highways financed by taxes and, therefore, not in a proper nor ethical position to support the sabotaging of a public document."

Selfish Reasons

The Clinton County News at St. Johns says in its issue of Dec. 13: "Certain road contractors and highway lobbyists are determined to scuttle Michigan's proposed new Constitution for purely selfish reasons. Because they are displeased with a couple of items in the new document they are prepared to spend thousands of dollars in a scare campaign to influence the voters at the coming Spring election."

The St. Johns editor continues: "We point out that a majority of the delegates to the recent Constitutional Convention favored these proposals after 7½ months of study and debate. These delegates were elected by the people of Michigan as their representatives, charged with the responsibility for giving full consideration to revision of the state's basic law."

"It seems presumptuous to us that a bunch of contractors, who do business with the state and represent no one but themselves, should band together to influence our citizens and interfere with the free will of the people to decide their own affairs."

Support Urged For Constitution

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney says adoption of Michigan's proposed new constitution and influence and tax dollars to Washington.

In a speech to the Michigan Township Association Wednesday night, Romney said the new constitution would permit local governmental units—including townships and especially counties and the state—to handle their problems at home.

Romney, who was a delegate and vice president at the Constitutional Convention, urged the association to support the proposed constitution, which goes before the voters April 1.

The group's board of directors has recommended that it oppose adoption. The association is scheduled to vote Friday on the issue. "The measure of your consideration should be whether the new constitution is better than what we now have," Romney declared. "It should not be whether the new constitution does everything that everybody would like it to do."

Romney warned that local and state government officials must step up to their responsibilities in meeting the needs of the people. If they don't, he said, "we will lose our self-government and see it drift away to a less satisfying and more expensive handling in Washington."

"Our very system of state and local government as we know it is in very real danger of passing out of the picture—unless we do something about it," Romney declared.

Chilly Weather Good For Health

LANSING (AP)—Cheer up about this bitter cold weather—it will make you healthier, advises a Health Department expert.

The comforting—if not warming—word came from Dr. George Agate, director of the department's Division of Communicable Diseases.

Cold weather, he said, tends to slow the growth of germs. It also acts to restrict community gatherings where germs are spread. On the other hand, he said, there is likely to be more spreading of germs in the family unit because of closer contact.

There always is the danger, he added of frostbite or weakening because of prolonged exposure to the cold to make a person more vulnerable to sickness.

"Nice, clear cold weather is generally healthy," Dr. Agate concluded. "Our friends in the Upper Peninsula always claim they catch more sicknesses when they come to Lower Michigan than they get in the north country where they have a more constant cold. You hardly ever see an unhealthy skier or winter sports enthusiast either."

Hong Kong's name means "Fragrant Harbor" in Chinese.

President Aims To Put New Life In U.S. Economy

sage to Congress later this month. Declaring false economy would jeopardize the national interest, Kennedy recommended increased spending for defense and space efforts.

For all other programs combined, his recommendations were slightly under the current total. Individually, some were higher—such as health, labor, welfare, education, housing and community development. Others—farm, postal and shipping subsidy programs, for instance—were lower, and the decreases more than offset the increases.

Proposed over-all defense spending of $55.4 billion would absorb 55 cents of every tax dollar, but Kennedy asserted: "There is no discount price on defense."

The total, up $2.4 billion from the current year, includes $51 billion for the Pentagon, $2.8 billion for the Atomic Energy Commission, $1.45 billion for military aid abroad and the balance for stockpiling, selective service and the like.

Moon Shot Costly

If Congress approves, expenditures aimed at landing a man on the moon in this decade and exploring faraway planets will go up 75 per cent, from $2.4 to $4.2 billion.

Pending a separate message, Kennedy withheld details on his education program. He didn't tell whether he again will recommend federal aid for school construction and teacher salaries, a proposal spiked on the religious issue in the last Congress. But he said spending should rise $165 million to $1.5 billion and he requested a doubling to $3 billion of appropriations for immediate and future use.

In another controversial field, he suggested total spending of $3.75 billion on foreign aid. This would include $2.3 billion for economic assistance and represent a net decrease of $100 million in the entire program. He asked for an appropriation, however, of $4.9 billion. That's just about what he asked for a year ago. Congress cut out a billion.

For all functions of government, Kennedy requested new appropriations of $96.5 billion. These are the figures Congress debates. Appropriations control much of current spending, although part of the nearly $99 billion Kennedy proposes to spend has been previously authorized.

Opposition Costly

The President faces opposition to both his spending and tax plans because of the debt they will create.

Last year Congress raised the temporary limit to $308 billion, providing for a drop to $305 billion next April 1, to $300 billion on June 25 and back to the permanent ceiling of $285 billion on July 1.

To cope with conditions as he sees them, Kennedy urged a prompt extension of the $308-billion limit through June 30. He said he would seek a further increase for the next 12 months. The present outlook, he said, is for a debt of $315.6 billion at the end of that period. He postponed making a specific request, however, until a more reliable estimate is possible.

Before getting into the next fiscal year, Kennedy called on Congress to appropriate another $3.9 billion for the current year. He said that much is needed to pay for legislation passed in 1962 without adequate financing.

For 1963-64 spending, he made these additional recommendations in what is known as the administrative budget:

Agriculture—$5.7 billion, down $1.1 billion.

Natural resources—$2.5 billion, up a billion.

Housing and community development—$300 million, down $200 million.

Health, labor and welfare—$5.6 billion, up $700 million.

Escanaba Man Sells Invention

Robert Abb of 1222 1st Ave. S., who for the past two years has been the associate director at the Anderson Funeral Home, today announced the sale of manufacturing rights of an embalming instrument known as the Abtco Anti-Clogging Trocar to the Frigid Fluid Company of Chicago, who will be nation-wide distributors for the instrument.

Abb said the development of the trocar was the result of five years work. He first applied for a patent on the instrument in 1957.

It was first placed on the market during the Wisconsin Funeral Directors Convention at the Brown County Arena in Green Bay last May. It has also been shown at state conventions throughout the nation and most recently at the National Funeral Directors Convention in Washington, D.C. last November.

Abb said the trocar will be sold by the Chicago firm on a royalty per unit basis.

Abb, a native of Houghton, came to Escanaba from Saginaw two years ago to assume his present position with the Anderson Funeral Home.

Sleeping Bear Park Opposed

GLEN ARBOR (AP) — The government's revised proposal for making a national park of 77,000 acres of the Sleeping Bear Dunes in Leelanau and Benzie Counties is in for a fight.

The Citizens Council, which claims to speak for 1,200 land owners of the area, said Wednesday it intends to oppose the action.

Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., who met with opposition on two prior bills he put before Congress, plans to introduce a third.

Ove Jensen, president of the Council, said the new Hart bill also is unsatisfactory. Hart's two prior bills never got out of committee. Jensen said that while Hart promised to meet with all objections in the new bill questions still remain.

Weekend To Bring Below-Zero Cold

Slightly warmer and then colder again for the weekend is the weather prospect in the Escanaba area, Meteorologist S. E. Decker of the U. S. Weather Bureau reported today.

After an official low of 7 below at 9:45 a. m. today the mercury began rising to a high of about 14 today. Tonight will be cloudy, there will be some snow moving into the area, and the low will be about 5 above.

Late tonight or tomorrow morning, however, the brief respite from sub-zero cold will end and colder weather will return. This will continue with deepening intensity of the cold with temperatures that will not range above zero on Saturday and Sunday.

"But the cold will not persist so long as it has in the present cold wave," said Decker.

Beginning last Sunday there have been sub-zero readings every day, with the low of 19 degrees (a near record for the day) reached on Tuesday.

In the Upper Peninsula, Marquette reported a low of 10 below zero and Sault Ste. Marie 3 below.

Saginaw had -1 and Flint and Lansing 5 above. Detroit had 13. In Lone Rock, Wis., one of the nation's coldest spots during the severe spell of frigid weather in the last week, the mercury made a rapid rise Wednesday after dropping to -37 in the morning. It was only -3 at 11 p. m. but four hours later, the mercury had dropped to 26 below, averaging a descent of nearly eight degrees an hour. It was -15 in nearby Madison.

In Minnesota, a reading of -25 was reported in International Falls and -10 in Duluth. Minneapolis with six below, had its warmest morning this week.

In the Northeast, lowest temperatures appeared to be confined to Maine, with -23 in Old Town.

Changes In Conservation

One of the major tests of the new Romney Administration in Michigan will be its leadership in conservation. Governor Romney in his State of the State address said that the state government's role in conservation is well established but "I intend to probe deeply into the organization, management and operation of the Department of Conservation. There is definite need to restore department morale and effectiveness."

"The administration is dedicated to a program of protecting and strengthening our water resources by stimulating public awareness and understanding of the problems of water use and conservation. To this end I recommend continued attention to water use problems to determine equitable water rights legislation."

One of the state's basic problems of conservation in Michigan is lack of citizen understanding of state policy, so that support is lacking for a fully progressive action program of resource development and a political compromise results. The state gets half of its potential loaf. The conservation commission and its program are creations of the Legislature and they are under constant legislative threat of curtailment when they should be under Legislature pressures for bolder and more useful action.

There is skirmishing behind the scenes at present to pick a new conservation commission. Terms of Chairman Clarence Messner of Ann Arbor and Commissioner Kenneth S. Lowe, editor of the Marquette Mining Journal expire April 1. There is an unfilled vacancy created by the last Senate's refusal to confirm the appointment of August Scholle, president of the Michigan AFL-CIO. And Commissioner Matt Laitala is reported planning to move from Michigan, which would create a fourth appointment and effect control of the 7 man commission.

Appointments can set the character of state conservation policy in a period which presents many major problems in the management of state resources.

The issue transcending all others is water usage. Policy affecting water usage will determine the nature of area development. Water is as vital to the operation of a modern iron mine plant, for instance, as iron ore, and a project like the new Empire Mine at Palmer will use a virtual river of water.

The state will have to decide how much water the increasing demands of industry can take from the public supplies, how much they can dissipate (in steam, etc.) and how much they can contaminate it.

Water policy will be a strong influence on sport and commercial fisheries and wildlife. It will affect farming, setting the limits on irrigation. It will affect community development.

The problem is not well defined now and it is ever changing as new elements are introduced—detergents in effluents, industrial chemical wastes, insecticides, herbicides, etc.

A big problem of the conservation commission will be to get public acceptance of the new discoveries of science so they can be used effectively in the conservation of public resources.

Where there are incompatibilities the conservation commission will have to guide the state in determining where to draw the line between support of industry and support of recreation, as in some forest conditions.

Critics of the state's conservation program—most of them are hunters and fishermen who think more game and fish can be provided for their sports by other policies—turn to the Legislature when they fail to pressure the conservation commission into change. But this parlay offers decreasing prospect of support for the dissidents.

As Senator Frederic Hilbert told a public meeting of the Conservation Commission in Escanaba in 1962: "If the Legislature sets rules for deer shooting, who do you think it will get its guidance from if not the Conservation Department?" To ask legislators to tackle the complex and politically poisonous problem of satisfying all hunters and fishermen in a state where their numbers increase and the shooting grounds shrink is to ask them to commit political hara-kiri. They should be welcoming the expanded educational campaign that the Conservation Department should be planning.

Columbus Did Better

The Nina II, a full-size replica of the smallest of Columbus' three ships, has reached the New World.

Not only did the craft take three times as long to repeat the original voyage made 470 years ago, but strong winds blew it 16 miles off its destination—San Salvador island in the Bahamas, Columbus' landfall—and, it had to be towed into port.

But this somewhat ignominious ending does not detract from the feat. The nine-man crew of seven Spaniards, one American and one Frenchman, without radio or any other modern equipment, had a far rougher crossing than Columbus. For a time, they were feared lost in an Atlantic storm.

They had one great advantage that Columbus didn't have, however: they knew where they were going. Had Columbus had as much trouble as the Nina II, his rebellious sailors undoubtedly would have forced him to turn back and his name might be unknown to the history books, except as an obscure footnote.

So They Say

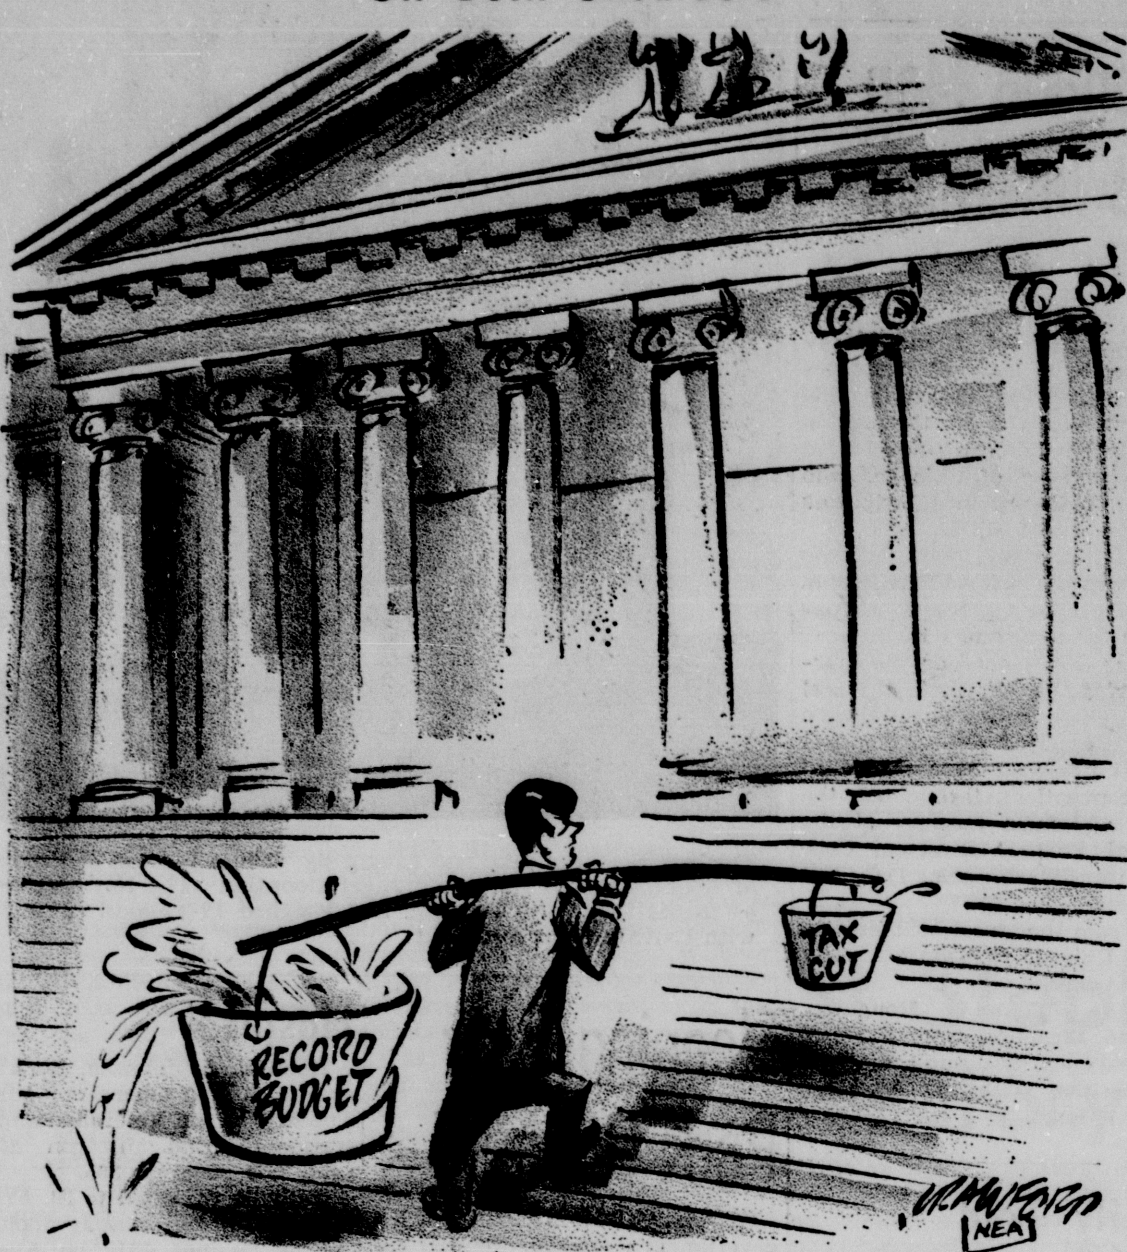

No country with adequate food has ever turned to communism. —Senator-elect George McGovern D-S-D., former director of Food for Peace program.

Exploring space is in some ways like walking down a strange street—we know the street is there, and that it must lead somewhere, but we never know what is around the corner. —James E. Webb, head of National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Many of our cities are languishing in social and cultural life, deteriorating physically and shrinking as far as their economic importance is concerned.—Victor Gruen, city planner.

The population explosion, the aspirations explosion, the nationalism explosion . . . they intrigue us and occupy us. But tensions of the world will not be relieved until the world experiences a genuine explosion of human justice and recognition of individual rights.—Vice President Johnson.

On Both Shoulders

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

One of the great internal spits in the international Communist movement has been revealed in Chairman Nikita Khrushchev's Dec. 12 speech to the Supreme Soviet in Moscow. It is how far to go in accepting new interpretations of Marxist-Leninist theory—how to beat down the evils of "dogmatism" without surrendering to the heresy of "revisionism."

This is a no man's land of Communist gobbledygook in which the average citizen of a democratic country easily gets lost.

But this current argument over Communist theory and practice seems to be at the root of the difference between Russia and Red China, between Red China and the Italian and Yugoslav Communists, between Yugoslavia and Albania and finally between Albania and Russia, to complete the daisy chain.

All Communist theoreticians start from the writings of Karl Marx and Nikolai Lenin. They wrote so much, however, that they are now being quoted by both sides in the current dispute over left-wing modern revisionism vs. right-wing Stalinist dogmatism.

This is best illustrated in Khrushchev's last major speech. It is now being studied closely by the State Department. It reveals such tortured logic as this:

India is commended by Khrushchev for having liberated the former Portuguese colonies of Goa, Diu and Daman, in line with orthodox Marxist-Leninist doctrine on anticolonialism.

But Communist China is praised by Khrushchev because it has not liberated the Portuguese colony of Macao and the British colony of Hong Kong, on the China mainland coast near Canton.

"Is this a departure from Marxism-Leninism?" asks Khrushchev. "Nothing of the sort," he answers. "This occurs not because the Chinese have a less acute attitude toward colonialism than the Indians

. . . (but) that they appear to be prompted by their own understandings and are exercising patience."

Having put the Chinese Communists on this spot, Khrushchev then uses this argument to defend his own withdrawal of missiles, warplanes and technicians from Cuba.

"What would have happened," he asks, "if during the Cuban events, we had not shown the necessary restraint and had listened to the promoting of ultrarevolutionary loudmouths? We would have been sunk in the morass of a new, thermonuclear world war . . ."

"The point is," Khrushchev argues, "that . . . a dogmatic approach, without sober consideration of the real situation, is harmful . . . Marxist-Leninists must remember that there is no abstract truth. Truth is always concrete." Khrushchev uses the same line of argument in praising the Chinese Communists for having declared a cease-fire on the Indian border, a war which he views "with particular sorrow."

Khrushchev makes another bid for tolerance toward Yugoslavia and other Communist countries accused of deviation from Marxism-Leninism—a charge Red China makes against Russia.

"Different interpretations of concrete questions of socialist construction . . . are not excluded," Khrushchev says. "It would be an error to condemn as renegades all those who do not fit a certain model . . . We must do everything to get rid of differences if they arise between the Communists of various countries."

After all this jargon of Marxist-Leninist liberalism, Khrushchev at the end of his speech applies the brakes in an apparent recognition that he can't let revisionism get out of hand.

"It is known that the statements of representatives of the Communist and worker parties of 1960 noted that the main danger in the world Communist movement is revisionism," he said.

"It cannot be denied that left-wing opportunism, dogmatism and sectarianism are increasingly emerging as a serious danger within the world Communist movement . . ."

"The Soviet Communists, who hold the unity of the ranks of the world Communist movement above everything else, will wage a decisive struggle against both the right-wing and left-wing opportunism which is now no less dangerous than revisionism."

This seems to classify Khrushchev as a "middle-of-the-road Communist," whatever that might be.

Deep well water was turned into the supply mains at Escanaba for the first time over the weekend, with electric pumps in operation at the two wells.

Dr. M. A. Eistein, dean of physicians and surgeons at the University of Kansas City, Mo., was hired by the Delta County Board of Supervisors as health department director to succeed Dr. Fred O. Tonney, resigned.

Failure to display gasoline ration stickers on their automobiles resulted in ten Delta County motorists being summoned to a hearing at the rationing board office. Warning was given that the OPA will deal severely with the violators.

Thirty Years Ago

Struck by the propeller of an ice sled, John Sepic, Gladstone barber, sustained injuries which necessitated the amputation of two fingers.

Mrs. Mary Brooks, a resident of Manistique since the early 80's, died today at the Masonic Home in Alma. A widow of the late George Brooks, she had been active in church and social activities during her long residence here.

Judge Frank A. Bell had a day off from court duties yesterday and went fishing on the ice. He paused at a fish shanty and rapped on the door seeking an opportunity to warm himself. The man inside was one whom he had given a jail sentence about a year previously for bootlegging. The meeting, nonetheless, was friendly.

Pencils Scuttle The Royal Navy

By TOM A. CULLEN
LONDON — (NEA) — Inside every Englishman a Captain Horatio Hornblower is said to be struggling to get out.

If this is true the Hornblowers of England must be reeling from rude blows dealt to them by the latest, 1962-63, edition of "Jane's Fighting Ships."

This 444-page reference work on the world's navies shows that Britain is in danger of slipping from third place among the world's naval powers.

Britain finds that she can no longer afford both nuclear bombs and nuclear submarines. Seapower has been allowed to decline.

Generations of schoolboys have been raised in the tradition of Britain's maritime greatness. Sir Francis Drake calmly finishing his game of bowls before sailing to defeat the Spanish Armada. Admiral Nelson turning his blind eye to the telescope—these are the legends of which heroes have been made.

What will the nation substitute for them, now that it is no longer a great maritime power? Generals But Britain is having a hard time meeting its military commitments to NATO. Astronauts? There are no British spacemen.

Meanwhile what humiliation it is to read in Jane's: "The Royal Navy appears now to be barely equal even to the task of the brush-fire type of local warfare for which in recent years it has been designed."

Time was when the mere sight of a British gunboat riding at anchor was enough to make lesser nations capitulate. A Spithead review, with ships of the Grand Fleet stretched as far as the eye could see, was once reckoned to put the fear of God into the great powers.

But today even a frigate costs $15 million, while aircraft carriers run to as much as $300 million apiece.

Since 1945 Britain has scrapped or sold 15 battleships, 30 aircraft carriers, 54 cruisers, 280 destroyers, 340 frigates and escorts and 110 submarines.

During this same period she has constructed only two guided missile destroyers, 40 new frigates, 14 submarines and 200 coastal craft.

At present Britain's "capital ships" comprise five cruisers and

A—Honeydew is the saccharine exudate found on the leaves of many plants in hot weather.

Q—Who established France's honor society, the Legion of Honor?
A—Napoleon I.

Q—What forms the northern and southern boundaries of Central America?
A—The Isthmus of Tehuantepec forms the northern boundary; the Isthmus of Panama the southern boundary.

Q—What are Mongolian spots?
A—Temporary patches of pigmentation which appear upon children usually in the sacrum-lumbar region, especially among Mongolian peoples. They usually disappear in early childhood.

two guided missile-armed destroyers (another four are under construction). One nuclear-powered submarine has been completed, while another is on the way.

All aircraft carriers and cruisers are either war-built or pre-war, which means that none of them is less than 15 years old, although many of them have been modernized.

By comparison, the U. S. Navy has 58 vessels of the aircraft carrier type, 43 cruiser type, 382 destroyer type and 339 destroyer escorts. It also has 26 nuclear-powered submarines, 243 minicraft, 240 amphibious vessels, 420 fleet auxiliaries and 1,260 service craft.

Post Improvement
We are very pleased that the Press is now coming to us in one day service. In the past it has always taken two days.

Could you tell us where we can get car stickers advertising the Escanaba Centennial? We plan to be there and would like to attract some of this Detroit area population to our beloved home town.

Men Vote 4 To 1 For Homely Girl

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The young man was in a quandary.

"I am tired of being a bachelor and want to settle down," he told me. "But I'm in love with two girls."

"They have the same physical measurements, uh, 37-23-35. I think. Both have the same amount of money—none. Each has a steady job that holds promise of advancement."

"But one is beautiful. Everyone comes up and wants to meet her when I take her out. She is wonderful to look at."

"The other one is homely. Nobody bothers us when I'm with her. But she is so much fun to listen to!"

"Tell me, which one should I marry?"

Water Cooler Verdict

Well, the next morning I put the question to five married male philosophers gathered around the office water cooler. The vote might surprise the average woman. It came out four-to-one in favor of recommending that the young man wed the homely girl.

"A beautiful dame is always holding the mirror up to herself," said the first. "A husband to her is only landscaping. He just serves as backdrop while she holds the center of the stage."

Said the second man: "It boils down to a matter of expense. Give me a homely girl every time. You'd think it would cost more to keep up a homely girl."

New Constitution 'Grand Mistake', Democrats Told

DETROIT (AP)—John Collins, Democratic state chairman, assailed Michigan's proposed new Constitution Wednesday as a "grand mistake."

Collins called for voters to reject it at the April election.

He said it "had been hacked up so thoroughly for purely partisan reasons by the Republicans that it would be almost impossible to operate under it."

Collins told the 1st District convention: "The more of that proposed document you read, the more inherently dangerous to Democratic government it proves to be."

because she needs so much improvement. Actually, it works the other way. It's the beautiful women who are never satisfied with how they look. They'll keep any man broke spending his money so they'll look even better—not to him but to other women."

"A homely woman is better because she doesn't mind giving a real belly laugh if something strikes her as funny, and a fellow likes a gal who can let go with a real belly laugh and enjoy herself," said the third man.

Fifth Disagrees
"That's true," broke in the fourth man. "But that's only part of it. There are other arguments."

"If you marry a beautiful woman, you wind up jealous of her. But if you marry a homely woman, she always worries about where your eye is wandering."

"Also, a beautiful woman never gets more beautiful, but marriage makes a homely woman prettier every year."

Indignantly the fifth man broke in:

"I must disagree with every crass word you fellows have uttered. Why, I married the most beautiful girl in the world, and I'd like to say—"

"How long you been married, son?" interrupted the first man.

"Three months, sir."

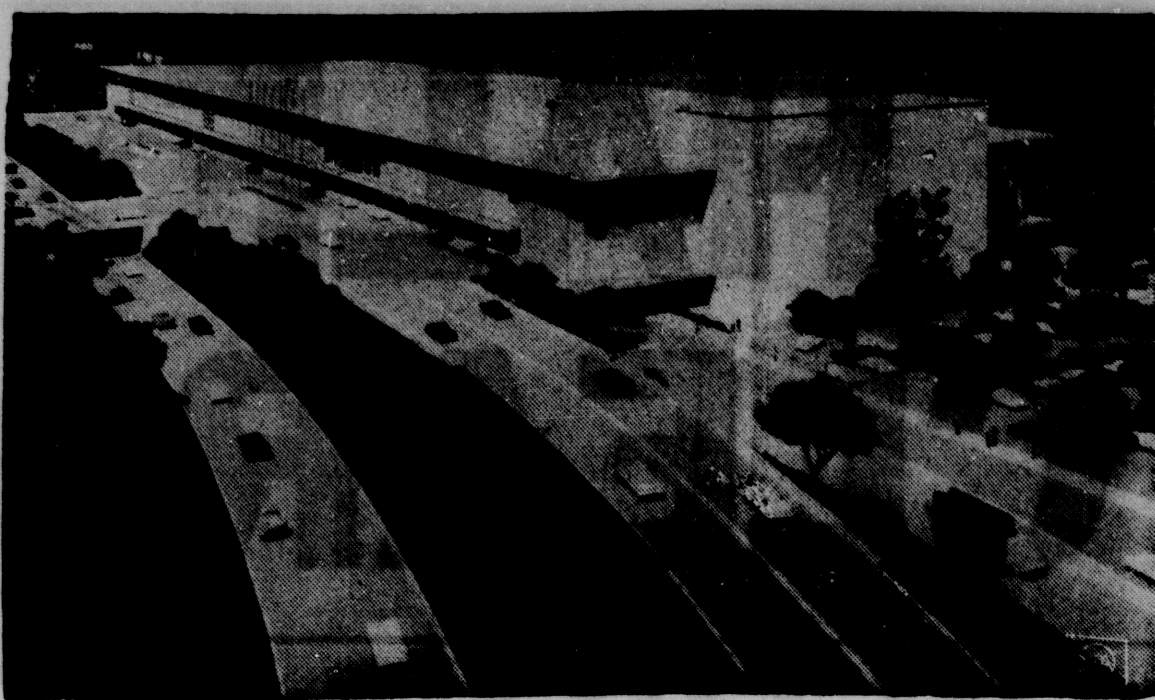

STRONG CONSCIENCE

CORNEL SUAREZ, Argentina. —The local police chief in this small Argentine Pampas town was astounded one day to hear 47-year-old Froilan Alvarez, considered an honest man by everyone in the district, confess to a theft.

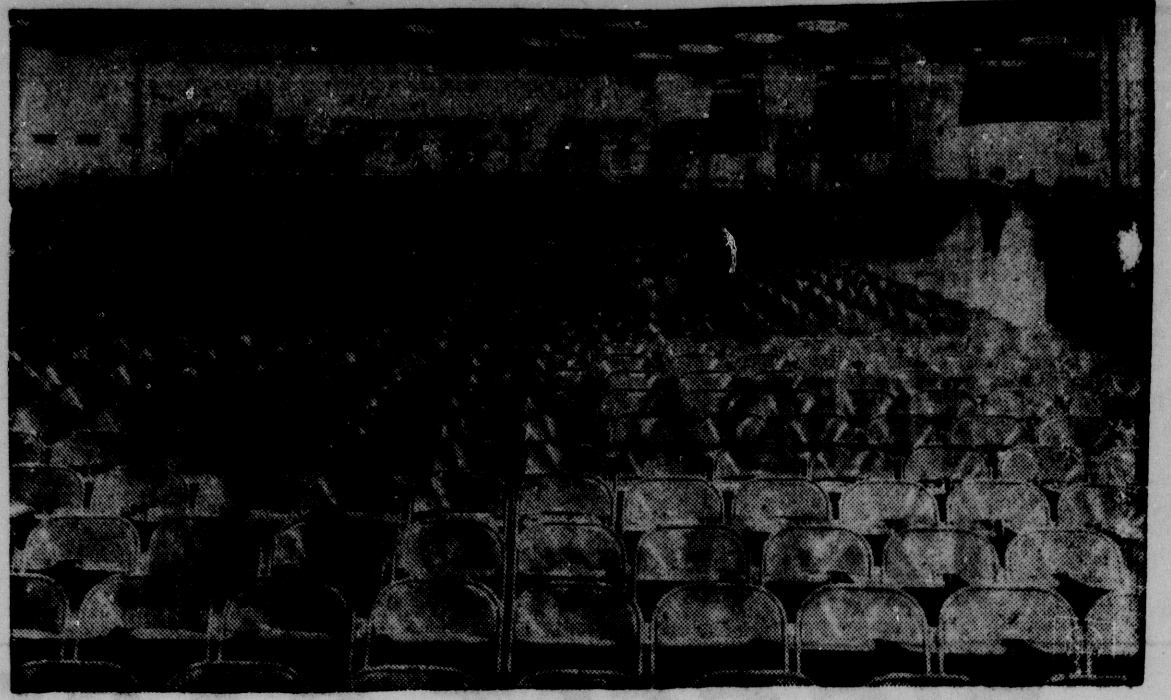

Several months ago, Alvarez said he had stolen a dozen cows from a field in the region. Three of the cows gave birth to calves since. Alvarez added his conscience was bothering him so much he wanted to return cows and calves, but did not know who the owner was.

Police sought the owner but could not find him. Alvarez was held on theft charges, but the local judge set him free on probation.

Alvarez then tried to commit suicide by slashing his wrists. He was rushed to hospital and saved. Asked why he did it, Alvarez replied: "My conscience was bothering me. The judge was too lenient. I should have stayed in jail."

High card in Chicago's hand as cities nation-wide bid for the 1964 presidential nominating conventions would be McCormick Place, above. The $35 million convention center is a block wide, three blocks long (365 by 1,180 feet). Its vast hall (partially shown, right) approximates the size of six football fields. In-building meeting rooms and restaurant facilities are ample to handle all activities of a convention. Bonus enticements: • Both GOP and Democrats could split the cost of preparing the hall for their conventions. • News media could set up for both conventions, and save astronomical expense of moving men and machines from one city to another.

Ann Landers

Pop's Duds Doomed By Teen-Age Fads

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a father who is ready to tear the remaining hairs out of my head. How can I get my 16-year-old to stop wearing my clothes? You are probably thinking all sons like to wear their Dad's clothes, but it's not my son I'm writing about—it's my daughter.

Shirts, sweaters, socks—everything seems to wind up on her back. Of course nothing fits, but then she says it's not supposed to. It's the style now to wear everything four sizes too big. The teenagers today buy the largest size they can find—except when it comes to jeans and saddle pants. Then they buy the smallest.

When I asked my wife where my hunting jacket was last night she said, "Judy wore it to a hay ride."

Is there a solution or am I doomed for life?—DADDYKINS

Dear Daddykins: Not for life—just until she gets married. And then guess what—you'll miss the annoyance.

Dear Ann Landers: My hobby is repairing hi-fi and radios. It is fun for me and I also manage to make a little extra money on the side. My workshop was a cozy area off the kitchen. It used to be a butler's pantry, but my wife never used it.

Last week she suddenly decided my "junk" would have to go into the basement because it didn't look nice right next to her kitchen. Without even discussing it with me she moved everything downstairs. Now she has her sewing machine in there and the room is messier than ever. Her patterns, dummies and bolts of material are all over the place.

The basement is damp and uncomfortable. The climatic conditions are not good for delicate electronic equipment. I would like your advice—in print, if you please.—DISPLACE PERSON

Dear Person: I know nothing about climatic conditions and electronic equipment, but I do know something about emotional climate and marriage.

Your wife had no right to summarily move your equipment to the basement. Move your stuff back upstairs immediately and make it clear you will not be treated like a small child.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 23, a college graduate and hold a responsible position. Two years ago I started to date Jerry. Last February we became engaged.

Jerry and I did not have the same religious background. We decided our marriage would stand a better chance if we each examined the other's religion, attended the other's church and then decided which one would change over.

After three months of alternating—attending his church one Sunday, the next Sunday mine—

Middle age is when your tripping is less light and more fantastic.

I decided his religion had more solace to offer and agreed to change. I told my parents and they were unhappy but did not make a fuss.

Last month Jerry and I broke up. My folks are now insisting that I come back to my original church. I don't want to. What is your opinion?—MERCEDES

Dear Mercedes: A girl 23 should be allowed to make this decision on her own. Stick to your guns, Girl.

Confidential: Valiant Loser On a Great Ticket: Harry Truman said it better than anybody... "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

To learn the booby-traps of teenage drinking, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a lang, self addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

SPRECHTEN SIE DEUTSCH? ATHENS, Ohio (U)—A group of Ohio University students has been granted a charter by the state of Ohio for a unique corporation.

They are establishing an Ohio University German Language House, where German must be spoken in all areas except private rooms.

Officials say it is the first non-university, nonfraternity housing unit ever to operate within the confines of Ohio University.

Only three of the 14 men involved speak German fluently, but all are taking courses.

Be Slim, Be Healthy, Be Happy!

EDITOR'S NOTE: Doctors and nutritionists call the increase in overweight among teen-agers a national problem. Gaynor Maddox, NEA's noted food and nutrition reporter, knows that this national problem is composed of millions of personal problems. And it is for individual boys and girls that he has collected the advice of the nation's leading experts presented in this series. Maddox's latest book, "Slim Down, Shape-Up Diets for Teen-Agers," will be published this spring by Avon.

(First of Six Articles)
By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise
Food and Markets Editor

You are in your teens and overweight.

Your parents nag and threaten you because you eat too much. You don't have many dates.

So you stay at home, lying on the couch or snuggled into an easy chair, watching television for hours while you nibble candy, cookies or potato chips. Food seems to ease your loneliness, to take the sting out of being bypassed by the boys who seem to want only slender girls. Or by girls who don't want fellows who are tubby.

How can you lose those pounds that are making you so unhappy? First, you have to decide you really want to lose them.

Second, you must cut down on high-calorie foods you love.

Third, and this is very important, you have to get off your bottom. What you do is just as important as what you eat. Sitting around watching television, using your feet as little as possible, riding whenever you can instead of walking, will put weight on you even though you don't eat a great deal.

Dr. V. Roswell Gallagher, chief of the Adolescent Unit of Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston says:

"Yes, what boys and girls DO is as important as how much they eat. Their appetites and diets may be enormous, but if they are constantly on the run they may not have a single ounce of excess fat."

Dr. Gallagher is famous for his work with overweight teen-agers just like you. He, too, is saying: "Get off your bottom."

Another leading authority on teen-age obesity, Dr. Jean Mayer of Harvard, states that from 15 to 20 per cent of all adolescents are so heavy they can be classified as medical problems.

Threat To Health

Asserting that sports and games and other activities are vital to your nutrition and health, he is troubled by your declining interest in dancing in favor of sitting events, by the shrinking of available spots for outdoor games, the vanishing of the old sand lot and the old swimming hole. He warns against a foot-dragging response to the President's physical fitness program and regards the increase in adolescent overweight a threat to national health. He says:

"In this post-Sputnik era, we seem more determined to produce scientists than young men and women with physical development and stamina. As a result, school athletic programs are often deprived of funds. We should realize that building strong, nonfat, active students is a vital part of education, no matter what the price tag."

Are you one of those overweight teen-agers who try to avoid school gym and physical education classes because you are embarrassed to be seen in a gym suit? Natalie Stiber, physical education teacher at a New York coed junior high school, reports:

"Many of our heaviest girls

Woman Motorist On Railway Track Stuck In Switch

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A woman motorist drove half a mile on a railroad track, then got stuck in a switch and delayed a 100-car freight train.

Mazie Wells of Burbank said she got on the tracks at a crossing Wednesday. A track supervisor saw her car jounce by at 25 miles an hour, followed by a freight train going in the same direction. He threw a switch that flagged down the train.

Police said the woman told them: "I thought this was a road." She was not cited.

If you come across a news tip, don't hesitate to telephone ST 6-4118, Radio WLST.

bring notes from their mothers saying their daughters are not strong enough for supervised calisthenics. They give all kinds of unsupported reasons, such as asthma, cramps, fatigue, weak back, etc."

Keep Active

Miss Stiber believes that instead of trying to soften life for teen-agers, mothers would be far kinder to encourage you to be more active. Not only to help you work off some of that fat which is depressing you, but also to keep you on your feet long enough to stop feeling sorry for yourself, with a compensating box of chocolates by your side.

Dr. Evelyn B. Spindler, a nutritionist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, active in promoting nutrition education among 4-H Clubs and other teen-aged groups, urges you to realize that intelligent eating as well as physical activity are both important in losing weight. She says:

"Although many of you teen-agers hate being fat, you need a tremendous amount of motivation before you will do anything for yourselves."

"Our problem is to discover ways to encourage you to want to learn better eating habits and to take part in school and club activities which will banish the loneliness and boredom that make you console yourselves by over-eating."

Dr. Spindler asked one group of teen-age girls the best way to get them interested in a nutrition and physical activity program. They answered:

"Don't preach and push at us—just have a handsome, athletic and popular boy conduct the project. Then watch us do something about our weight."

Unfortunately, handsome, athletic teen-age boys are not usually interested in overweight girls who don't make an effort to reduce.

Advertising helped it happen

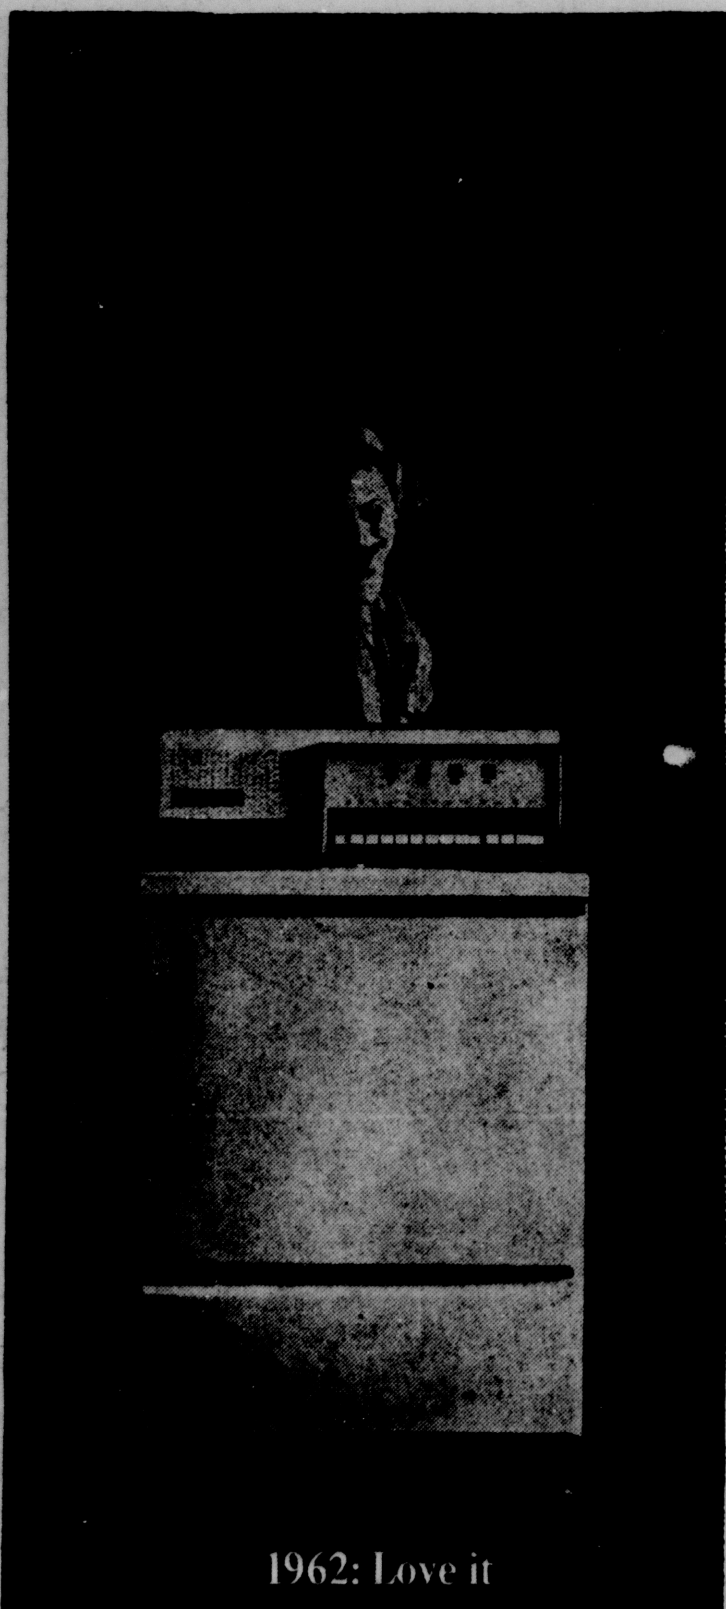

By stimulating mass demand, advertising helped create a mass market for washing machines. As demand grew, more and more companies got into the act. Result: new and better washers mass produced for more people by America's remarkable and competitive economic system. Is this worthwhile? Then, so is advertising worthwhile.

Red Cross Hope Of Blood Bank In United Fund

The Delta County Red Cross Chapter's financial troubles were reviewed at a meeting of the Chapter in the Chamber of Commerce building Tuesday night with American Red Cross representatives who agreed to ask forgiveness of some of the Chapter's debts to enable it to continue its services here.

Warren Morrison, general chairman of the Membership and Funds Committee, reported that the Chapter could expect about $3,500 from the financial campaign now closing. This would be in addition to $4,600 raised in a spring campaign in 1962 and would provide about $8,000 for the year. The Chapter needs a minimum of $13,000 to pay the bills for its annual services to the Delta County public.

It is an agency chartered by Congress and responsible for the community's relationship with armed service personnel, and it also sponsors the Badger Blood Bank services in the county, disaster aid, water safety, first aid and other programs.

C&NW Requests Cut In Service

MILWAUKEE — The North Western Road has notified the interstate commerce commission (ICC) of its intention to discontinue two of its streamliners, the Twin Cities "400" and the Rochester "400."

The passenger trains, which run between Chicago and the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul and Mankato, Minn., have operated at a loss of over $8,600,000 during the past four year period, the railroad said.

The ICC notification marked the second attempt by North Western to discontinue the two trains. It first sought approval in October, 1961, but after public hearings, the commission ordered North Western to operate the trains for another year.

In its petition, the line said its losses on the trains have increased during the one year enforced operation from a net loss of over $2,300,000 in 1961 to a net loss of more than $2,400,000 in 1962. In addition, it said, the trains currently are operating at a loss of more than $5,500 daily.

Passenger loads on the trains, both daytime runs carrying neither mail nor express, have continued to fall, the railroad said.

Mail Fraud In Land Sales Has Spurt In Nation

"In the last 24 months, the number of cases of mail fraud involving land sales has snowballed, with over 150 promoters being investigated, twice as many as a year ago," says Henry B. Montague, chief postal inspector, Post Office Department.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards warns against buying land by mail without prior inspection in person or by a trusted representative.

Montague says the chief reason for the increase in investigations is because "the public is starting to become aware of it."

Another official in the investigations division of the Post Office Department says that there is another reason for the increase: more and more "con" men are entering the field.

Another group which has warned the public of this type of fraud is the National Association of License Law Officials.

Robert W. Semanow, Pittsburgh executive vice-president of NALLO, says would-be buyers can protect themselves by:

1. Doing business only with a realtor or reputable broker.
2. Having the land inspected personally or by an agent in whom they have confidence.

The chapter owes $857 to the Badger Blood Bank, Madison, Wis., for services to Delta County in the last half of 1962 and $875 more for the first half of 1963, payable in advance.

Meeting with Don Wertz, Delta Red Cross Chapter chairman, Morrison and other local leaders were Jack Manthei, of St. Louis, area Red Cross representative, and Bill Smith, Iron Mountain, field representative.

Manthei said he believes that the key to continued Red Cross services in Delta County is a successful United Fund. Such a federated fund raising organization formerly operated here, but now is in suspension, with talk of reviving it next fall.

"The area office," said Manthei, "cannot permit any chapter with a limited and deficit budget to continue with a blood bank program. This is not a threat, it is a matter of fact dictated by our National Red Cross Charter issued by Congress. Other services such as home service (assistance to servicemen and their families) are required by the charter and must take precedence over blood bank sponsorship."

Wertz told the Red Cross officials that he expected the United Fund to reorganize here and be ready for a campaign next fall. "It is recognized," he said "that the Red Cross is not unique in its financial problems and that a successful United Fund effort is a 'must' if the services of charitable organizations are to continue in our local communities."

The Red Cross Board pledged its support of the United Fund organization.

Manthei said that he was hopeful that in view of the UF plans and prospects, the Red Cross services, including the blood bank, could be continued in Delta County. He said that forgiveness of some of the Delta Chapter's obligations to the National Red Cross would be asked. The Chapter has not paid its 1962 dues to the national organization.

May Delay Move To New School

The "time for decision" is near on the question of whether the new Escanaba Area Public High School will be occupied by students before next fall, and the question cannot be answered until nearer the end of this month.

James Stewart, project supervisor, told the Area board of education that less than a dozen working days remain before Feb. 1, the previous target date to occupy the new building. While there have been no serious delays and it is hoped to have the front classroom and the cafeteria ready by Feb. 1 — it could mean that workmen would have to return to the building on weekends or after school hours to complete minor tasks.

"From the safety standpoint we don't want to occupy the old high school building one day longer than is necessary," Supt. Walter Bright told the school board.

MUNISING — Qualified endorsement of establishment of the proposed Pictured Rocks recreation area was approved in a resolution adopted by the Munising City Commission at its first 1963 meeting.

Exchange of government property "of comparable value" for land taken from private owners in setting up the recreation area — to maintain a limit of 37 per cent of land held by the state and federal governments in Alger County — was one of the stipulations stressed by the commission in its resolution.

IRON MOUNTAIN — Completely remodeled, completely renovated and completely modern.

That, in a nutshell, describes the Commercial Bank in Iron Mountain, where a large-scale work project was recently completed by the R. G. Joiner Co., of Iron Mountain. Work on this remodeling project was started in August.

An open house will be held at the bank from 3 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., Friday, Jan. 18.

Father, Daughter And Son Live In Open For 47 Days

BAY CITY, Tex. (AP)—A father who took his two children to bleak Matagorda Peninsula for 47 days "to get them close to nature" wound up in jail.

William Haggood Berry, 47, an unemployed salesman, his son Steven, 9, daughter Bonny, 14, and two cats were taken off the peninsula, 30 miles south of here on the Gulf of Mexico coast, Wednesday by a deputy sheriff after they were spotted by the pilot of a light plane.

Sheriff J. B. Cole said the boat used by Berry to reach the peninsula was reported stolen. Berry was jailed on a charge of theft. He said he left his car as security for the boat but didn't discuss this arrangement with the boat's owner.

The three had only a tarpaulin windbreak for shelter on Matagorda, where temperatures dropped to the low 20s on two occasions.

Cole said the three were "unbelievably dirty and ragged" but apparently in good health.

They were provided with baths and food. As the children dined on hamburgers and milk shakes, they said the experience "was fun until it got cold."

Car Sales Start Strong For 1963

By The Associated Press
New car sales in the United States reached a record 170,138 units during the first 10 days of January, according to the Dow-Jones News Service.

Meanwhile, the Commerce Department is predicting a 7 million car production year in 1963, surpassing last year's estimated 6.9 million and making it the second highest on record.

Dow-Jones said Wednesday the Jan. 1-10 new car sales represented an increase of 20.4 per cent over the same period last year.

Despite record sales by Ford Division, Ford Motor Co.'s market share slipped from 28.3 per cent last year to 25.3 per cent and Chrysler's percentage of 10.6 was the same as a year ago, Dow-Jones said.

American Motors Corp.'s percentage was 5.3, up from last year's 4.6 per cent, while Studebaker's percentage fell to 1.2 from 1.5 per cent last year.

Oldsmobile reported 11,678 new car deliveries during the first 10 days of January, representing what it said was an increase of 13 per cent over the same period last year.

General Motors Buick Division reported a record - breaking 10-day delivery total of 12,468 new cars.

Buick said the Jan. 1-10 deliveries represented an increase of 58 per cent over the same period last year.

Pontiac Motor Division reported record sales of 14,126 Pontiacs and Tempests during the 10-day period, compared with the previous record of 13,212 units sold in 1961.

Oleg Cassini Offers Advice On Golf Attire

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Say, men, do you have knobby knees? Are you bow-legged? Do your under-pinnings look like pipe stems? If so, stick to slacks. Don't wear Bermuda shorts on the golf course.

This is the admonition of Oleg Cassini, the well-known New York designer.

Cassini, suave, Parisian-born clothes authority who used to drape cinema lovelies in Hollywood, was asked by Golf Digest Magazine to look into the wild attire worn on the nation's golf courses.

Situation Horrible
He did—and was aghast. Of the men, Cassini said: "I do believe that men who are conservative in their business and home environments are often riotously abloom in their sports clothes. They will mix incredible colors and patterns and never know what eyesores they present."

Of the gals, he said: "Women, too, will uncannily combine stripes and plaids, polka dots and prints on the golf course."

The designer said his key to good dress on the golf course is "functional."

Feel Comfortable
"You must be able to feel comfortable, look neatly groomed and still have the freedom of movement without restriction so essential in this sport."

Speaking of Bermuda shorts for men, Cassini said:

"My feeling is that if they have well-shaped legs and if they wear the entire ensemble that can make a fine appearance. But if, horror of horrors, they affect Bermuda shorts with ill-shaped underpinnings and with those short ankle socks, they invariably give the appearance of having just left the planet Mars."

Michigan Stress On State Colleges Ups Education Tax

ANN ARBOR—Eighty per cent of all college students in Michigan are in public institutions, according to Merritt Chambers, University of Michigan.

"In Wisconsin, about 70 per cent; in Indiana, about 60 per cent; in Illinois, about 50 per cent; and in Ohio, about 48 per cent," he adds.

"The nationwide panorama shows that of some 2,000 universities, colleges and junior colleges, about 800 are public and about 1,200 are private," says Chambers.

"The balance between public and private varies greatly among the 50 states, generally being heavy on the private side in the Northeastern states, and heavy on the public side in the Western states," Chambers notes.

Chambers observes that "in Michigan, where eight students out of 10 are in tax-supported institutions, the tax cost per citizen is higher than it is in another state where only four out of 10 students are in public institutions.

"This sort of accounting is necessary to keep ourselves informed about higher education as

Presbyterians Open New Library Drive For Alma College Smear

An $850,000 campaign to build a new Alma College library will begin among Michigan Presbyterians the week of Jan. 20, according to an announcement today by Dr. Robert D. Swanson, Alma College president.

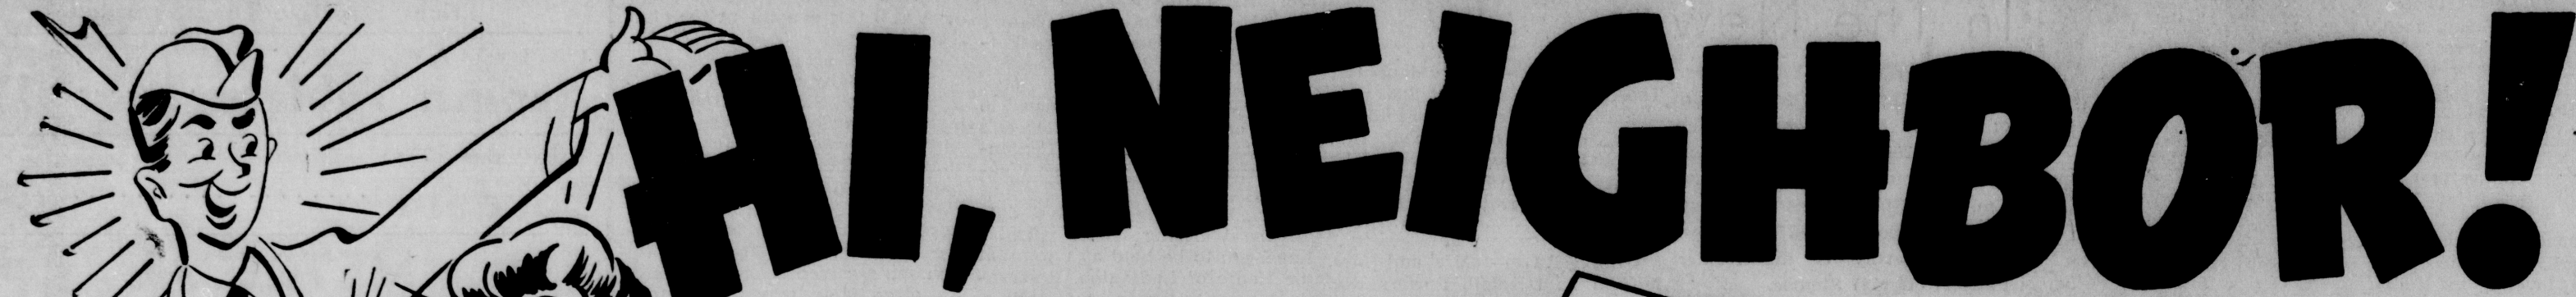

Dr. Herbert Beecher Hudnut, pastor of Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church of Detroit, chairman of the new library campaign reports, "A spirit of enthusiasm, determination and commitment exists among Michigan's more than 150,000 Presbyterians to provide the funds to make the start of construction possible during 1963."

According to Dr. Harold C. Vandenberg, Alma College vice president, a total of almost $300,000 in advance gifts and pledges is already on hand.

The new library will be the ninth new building added to the Alma College campus since 1962. The new structure will contain space for 120,000 volumes and will have "study stations" for 500 students and faculty.

Full-grown ostriches weigh up to 300 pounds.

Era Of Steam On Soo Line Makes New Photo Book

A pictorial history of the Soo Line's era of steam, compiled in book form by a former Soo telegrapher, has been published. "Steam Trains of the Soo" by Leslie V. Suprey, is an 88-page, cloth-bound book containing over 100 photographs of Soo steam locomotives and trains from the first Rhode Islands of 1884 to the Northerns acquired in 1938.

A special feature of the book is a brief history of the Soo by former editor of The Soo-Liner, Jim Lydon. Suprey, who was with the Soo for 18 years, comes from a family of telegraphers. His grandfather was a telegrapher on the Winnipeg division, and his father, Grant E. Suprey, is a Soo telegrapher at Isle, Minn. The author is currently employed as a state liquor control agent at Rochester, Minn.

"Steam Trains of the Soo" is being published by B & W Printers & Publishers, Mora, Minn., at $5.

Audiences Star In Hope's Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bob Hope Christmas show, arriving about three weeks after the holiday, has become a sort of annual delayed present from television.

This year Hope and his troupe (as usual consisting primarily of pretty girls like Lana Turner, Janis Paige and Anita Bryant) journeyed from an icy outpost on the North Korean border in sight of Red patrols to the sun-baked deck of the carrier Kitty Hawk, everywhere entertaining thousands of American servicemen.

Bits and pieces from many shows were edited into an hour-long program on NBC Wednesday night.

Hope rattled off his steady stream of wisecracks "inside" GI jokes and snide comment on everything from local weather to the top brass. The boys loved it all, particularly the girls. But for the home audiences, soldiers and sailors were the real stars of the show, as the cameras showed their young laughing faces.

Hope and his friends are nice people.

This week's episode of NBC's "Don't Call Me Charlie" is the show's swansong. "The Price Is Right" moves into the spot on Feb. 1. Last programs of the network's "Saints and Sinners" and "It's a Man's World" will be Jan. 28—and then come feature movies to fill the two hour hole followed by a new Art Linkletter effort.

Preliminary reports indicate that CBS' reshuffling of its Thursday and Friday night schedules has been successful—with both "The Nurses" and "Alfred Hitchcock Hour" picking up larger audiences in their new spots.

Movies In Trouble, Says Helen Hayes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Helen Hayes says motion pictures are in "an era of terrible trouble" because Hollywood has lost touch with public taste.

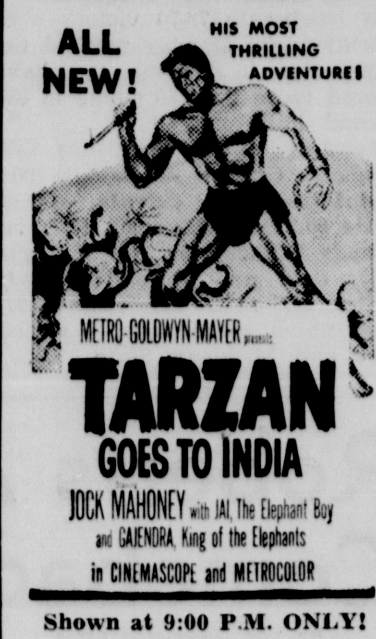

"If Hollywood is still in the Tennessee Williams era, the rest of the country isn't," the famed stage star said Wednesday.

"Hollywood went all arty and then went into the grim, Italian phase," she said. "Now it's simply in an era of terrible trouble."

Miss Hayes is here to appear in a play.

Bearcats Invade Bradley's Lair; Not Too Worried

By The Associated Press

Cincinnati moves into the lion's den tonight. The lion is worried. The top-ranked Bearcats, unbeaten in 31 basketball games dating back to the last time they stepped into Bradley's lair at Peoria, Ill., will be out to clip the lion's tail tonight and snap a five-year losing string at the Bradley home court.

"I think that Bradley can be beaten there," he said. "I've seen them beaten at Peoria. We have no fear or apprehension about it," said Cincinnati Assistant Tay Baker.

It'll be a tough Missouri Valley Conference test for Cincinnati, 13-0 this season and all-conquering since a 70-68 overtime loss to Bradley at Peoria, Jan. 10, last year. In five games over the last five years, the Bearcats have been unable to beat the Braves' on their home floor.

One home court string went by the boards Wednesday night when Furman knocked off Virginia Tech 66-61 in a Southern Conference game, ending the Gobblers' 41-game home victory streak dating back to Feb. 7, 1958.

In other conference activity, North Carolina edged North Carolina State 67-65 in an Atlantic Coast game, Harvard defeated Dartmouth 59-55 in an Ivy League clash and Morehead beat Western Kentucky 87-71 in the Ohio Valley.

Elsewhere, ninth-ranked West Virginia whipped Penn State 89-73, DePaul belted Notre Dame 83-69 and Louisville defeated Xavier, Ohio 75-66.

Karras Will Face Rozelle In Quizz About Gambling

NEW YORK (AP) — Alex Karras, a rugged star on the Detroit Lions' celebrated defensive team, has a tough verbal scrimmage coming up today with Commissioner Pete Rozelle of the National Football League in the latest development of the pro football betting investigation.

Karras rekindled interest in the probe, which had been out of the headlines for the past few days, by admitting on television interviews Wednesday that he had bet on football games, including those he played in, although he said his wagers were limited to "a pack of cigarettes or a couple of cigars."

News of the first interview, taped Sunday by NBC for a Wednesday newscast, apparently prompted Rozelle to summon the big tackle to the commissioner's New York office for an explanation.

When contents of the interview were publicized several hours before the telecast, Rozelle announced: "Alex Karras will be given an opportunity to explain the published remarks attributed to him. Such actions as he admitted constitute a serious breach of a player's contract and the constitution and by-laws of the league."

An NFL player's contract says he can be fined and suspended for life or indefinitely, and-or have his contract canceled for betting on games.

The interview with NBC ended this way:

Question: Do you bet on ball games?

Answer: I have bet on ball games.

Question: Have you ever bet on a ball game in which you were playing?

Answer: Yes, I have.

In a followup interview with Dave Diles of WXYZ-TV in Detroit, Karras said he "never bet more than a package of cigarettes or a couple of cigars and then I bet only with close friends. I never bet with a bookie or talked with one. I don't even know any bookies."

East's All Stars Fashion Upset; Russell Is Tops

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The East congratulated itself with utmost justification today on its 115-108 victory over the West in the National Basketball Association's annual All-Star game.

Many called it an upset. But, the way things turned out, this was no upset. Someone just picked the wrong favorite. And it irritated the East something awful.

What happened was that Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and a host of less renowned pros of the East simply ran, passed and scored the pantaloons off the West.

"I never had an easier game," said the East's coach, Red Auerbach.

The East opened the scoring on a basket by Tom Heinsohn of Auerbach's Boston Celtics and was never tied nor behind from there on.

At halftime it was 56-50, and the score was much closer than the contest. For example, 3 minutes and 20 seconds before that buzzer the West's great Elgin Baylor had scored his first and only field goal of the entire first half.

Robertson went on to lead the East in scoring with 21 points. Russell, who had 19, bottled up the West attack and won the Most-Valuable-Player award for the evening.

The shining light for the West was Bob Pettit, with a game high of 25 points. This was the veteran St. Louis Hawk's 10th All-Star game.

The thing that shocked the local boosters among the crowd of 14,838 was the frigid performance of Baylor and Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Baylor sank but 4 out of 15 field goal attempts, and 9 of 13 free throws for a total of 17 points. West hit on 5 out of 15 field goal tries and 3 out of 4 free shots for 13 points.

The West's coach, Fred Schaus of the Lakers, observed: "Bill Russell dominated both boards. We did a good job on Wilt Chamberlain."

New Grid Coach Wants Big Men

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bianton Collier, new head coach of the Cleveland Browns, says the club has some weaknesses, but that he hasn't had time to give much thought to personnel.

"We need big interior linemen, a big running back and good receivers," he said Wednesday after he was named to succeed Paul Brown, who had coached the team since it was organized in 1946. "It remains to be seen if we have enough on hand or if we have to do some trading."

Collier's appointment was announced at a news conference by Arthur B. Modell, Browns' president, who bought the National Football League club for $4 million in 1961.

Modell also announced that Harold Sauerbrei, a former Cleveland sportswriter, would succeed Brown as general manager. Sauerbrei, who has been with the Browns since 1954, has been serving as business manager of the club.

Collier announced that basically he plans to have the quarterback call the plays, a major change from the Brown regime. Brown's practice of sending in all the plays from the bench had been criticized by the fans and some of the Browns' quarterbacks.

Collier, 56, was promoted from backfield coach under a three-year contract at an unannounced salary.

Buntin Paces Big Ten Lists

CHICAGO (AP) — Sophomore Bill Buntin of Michigan is beginning to hog Big Ten statistics with leadership in five categories.

Buntin, according to conference figures today, is tops after four games in field goal attempts 88, field goals 41, free throw attempts 32, free throws 21 and rebounds 62.

The scoring leader, however, is Indiana's Jimmy Rayl with a 34.5 average in two league games. Based on average, Gary Bradds of Ohio State is No. 2 with 31.0 and Buntin No. 3 with 25.8. The list drops after that to 21.0 for Rich Falk of Northwestern.

Other leaders include: Field goal percentage — Tom Bolyard, Indiana, 15 of 21 for 71.4; free throw percentage — Bill Small, Illinois, 14-14—1.000.

Illinois, with a 4-0 conference record and ranked third nationally, is among teams idle this week-end because of exams. The Illinois' hairbreath 78-76 victory over Northwestern Monday marked the eighth time in 13 games they have scored more than 50 points in the second half.

Leaders in team statistics (averages): Offense — Indiana 90.5 and Illinois 89.8; defense — Ohio State 66.3 and Wisconsin 68.7; rebounds 8 Illinois 50 and Michigan 41.5; field goal percentage — Indiana .507 and Minnesota .497; free throw percentage — Illinois .837 and Michigan State .789.

Roberts Awarded Comeback Honors

By The Associated Press

Robin Roberts, who hit the end of the trail with the Philadelphia Phillies and then was dropped before he threw a pitch for the New York Yankees, was named today as the athlete who made the greatest comeback of the year 1962.

Roberts, who found new life with the Baltimore Orioles and wound up second in earned run averages in the American League, edged another baseball veteran who sprang back from a bleak campaign, Stan Musial, in the annual Associated Press poll.

The Oklahoma football team, bouncing back to an Orange Bowl berth, took third spot. The San Francisco Giants, given up for dead before they battled back to win the National League pennant from the Los Angeles Dodgers in the last inning of the last playoff game, were voted fourth.

The University of Southern California Trojans, national football champions and leaders of a West Coast gridiron comeback, got the fifth spot.

Roberts gained 114 first place votes and a total of 506 points, based on a 3-2-1 point count, in the voting by 292 sports writers both made good showings in the national Golden Gloves championship tournament at Chicago.

Pete, older of the brothers, is expected to compete at 160 pounds again this year. Larry, a 135 pounder in recent years, may move up to the welterweight class.

A younger brother, John, suffered a nose injury in training this week and may not be ready for action in the tournament.

The Manistique team, annually one of the strongest in the U. P. tournament, is coached and trained by Wayne Tunfell and Francis Selling, former outstanding Golden Gloves boxers themselves.

Among the other veterans on the Manistique team are featherweights Dewayne Dixon and Dale Dufour and Dan Hendrickson. Manistique will be one of four strong teams entered in the 1963 tourney. The other clubs competing will be from Escanaba, Menominee and K. I. Sawyer Air Base, with additional entries expected from Treenary and other Upper Peninsula communities.

All fighters entered in the tournament will receive physical examinations and be weighed in at 3:30 Saturday, Jan. 26. First night tournament pairings will be made following the weigh-ins by Karl Dickson, co-chairman of the tournament which is sponsored by the Daily Press-WLST and the Escanaba Lions Club.

Winners of Upper Peninsula championships will advance to Green Bay on Monday, Feb. 11, to face the Fond du Lac champions. Open division winners at Green Bay will advance to Chicago late in February.

All profits of the Upper Peninsula are turned over to the Lions Club's sight and blind charity fund, which has donated thousands of dollars to needy people in recent years.

MacArthur Begins Peace Maker Role In Sports Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—Old soldier Gen. Douglas MacArthur begins his peace-making role Friday in the nation's amateur sports war, with authority to crack some heads together if he has to.

The warring Amateur Athletic Union and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, fighting over the control of the nation's major amateur sports, enter arbitration sessions with the general at his hotel here behind statements of cautious optimism.

The boiling 2½ year dispute has led to a boycott by almost all college athletes of the current Eastern indoor track season, and some pretty strong charges aimed at officials of the rival groups.

A government spokesman made it clear that MacArthur is expected to settle the dispute.

"Gen. MacArthur was picked with the idea of settling the matter once and for all," he said. "If the two sides aren't able to get together, the general will make a decision and that will be it."

President Kennedy named MacArthur to settle the battle because it was threatening U.S. participation in the Olympics.

William W. Russell, a member of the NCAA delegation and president of the U.S. Track and Field Federation, said his group enters the meetings "with a constructive, optimistic and cooperative attitude."

Louis J. Fisher, chief AAU delegate, said "with such an outstanding and fair-minded man as Gen. MacArthur serving as arbitrator it is inconceivable to think that these talks can fail."

But he added a qualification: "Certainly the AAU will be ready to abide by any decision the general might make so long as it meets with our international commitments."

In the light of the government's view of the arbitration, any qualifications—if held after a settlement is reached—could lead to some stern action by either MacArthur or President Kennedy.

The AAU is the international representative of the U.S. on various international sports bodies, including the key sport of track and field. The NCAA wants its own Federation to take over this role in track, basketball and gymnastics.

Eastern Defeats Ohio Northern

By The Associated Press

Michigan schools took on two Ohio basketball teams Wednesday night. One game had a surprise ending while the other was the same old story.

The surprise was Eastern Ohio Northern. After trailing throughout most of the game, the Hurons reared up to send the game into overtime and outscored the Ohio visitors 19-18 in two extra periods.

The same old story was Olive's 81-66 loss to Defiance of Ohio, the school's 11th defeat in as many games.

In other Michigan basketball action, Ferris rolled over Hillsdale 79-82 in a non-conference game at Hillsdale, and Kalamazoo, playing host to Adrian, routed the Bulldogs 66-55 in an MIAA clash.

Albion's game at Aquinas was postponed because of heavy snow in the western part of the state. A decision was to be made today as to whether the game will be rescheduled.

Bruins Repeat Win Over Hawks

CHICAGO (AP)—The last-place Boston Bruins must have the whammy sign on the Chicago Black Hawks, National Hockey League leaders.

The Bruins scored twice in a last period rally Wednesday night to win 5-4 and beat the Hawks for the second time in a row.

Warren Godfrey and Guy Gendron each scored in the finale to overcome a 4-3 Chicago lead and give Boston its eighth victory of the season.

Chicago remains two points ahead of the Toronto Maple Leafs, who are at Montreal tonight while Boston is at Detroit.

Northern Hosts Downstate Quint

MARQUETTE—Northern Michigan College hopes to extend its mastery over out-of-state opponents to Michigan rivals Saturday afternoon when the Wildcats host Wayne State University. The Cats edged the University of Minnesota-Duluth earlier this week, 79-78.

Saturday's contest, originally scheduled for 1:30 p. m., has been moved back to 3:45 because of mid-year commencement ceremonies.

Coach Stan Albeck's squad, ranked 11th in the nation by the latest Associated Press small-college poll, has compiled a 6-1 record against out-of-state opposition while posting a 1-2 mark against Michigan teams. The NMC cagers are unbeaten at home in seven games.

In Wayne State, Northern will face a rebuilding team which posted a 9-9 record last season and currently is 1-4. The lone victory was an upset over Allegheny (Pa.) College, 64-55. The Tartars, who play Michigan Tech Friday night, were badly beaten in their last outing by Washington University of St. Louis, Mo., 83-44. Washington, however, has also thumped Harvard, Wheaton and Valparaiso among others this year, and the Missourians won an eight-team tournament during the holidays.

Coach Joel Mason has a one-two scoring punch in forwards Jim Spivey and Sean Whalen. The two seniors have averaged 17 points each in their last two games.

Seeking their third consecutive win after suffering three straight setbacks, the Wildcats, paced by guard Bob Armstrong and center Gary Silc, are averaging 83 points and 67 rebounds per game. Armstrong and Silc are both averaging more than 15 points per game and also lead the Cats in rebounds.

After reviewing the NMC-UMD game film, Albeck indicated that the only player sure of a starting position is 6-7 Silc who has pumped in 69 points in his last three games.

The Wildcats are scheduled for light workouts for the next two weeks because of semester exams.

The new March of Dimes has two other problems besides polio, namely birth defects and arthritis. About birth defects, what do expectant parents hope for? A normal birth and a normal child. However, it doesn't always turn out that way. That's why we, of the National Foundation continue the fight. All is fine if we have our health. Count your blessings if you do. May I say this — If disaster hits your home and family, one will soon be more generous toward all the programs we have for a worthy cause. We of the March of Dimes are not stealing anyone's show. Our program is broad. The Salk Institute is being established for everyone. The National Foundation for Birth Defects, Arthritis and Polio welcomes you to join us at the Salk Institute in San Diego, Calif., to conquer heart disease, cancer or any other malady that affects the people of the world. Shay Sells His Lumber Operation At Seney Plant

SENEY — The lumber division of the L. H. Shay Veneer Co. Inc., has been sold to Harry A. Young of Grayling.

The sawmill has been operating four years and has an annual cut of four million board feet. Shay, who also sold his Canadian mill three months ago, reports he will continue veneer export and import operations.

The Shay Co. reports it supplies 90 per cent of the birdseye maple used in the European market and is rated the largest exporter of this product in the United States. Headquarters for this operation will now be at Germfask, Shay reports.

No change in personnel is contemplated, Young reports, and said it is hoped operations at the Seney mill can be expanded. G. A.

Furlong Returns To Conservation

LANSING (AP)—The Conservation Commission has announced the appointment of Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, as its new secretary.

The 54-year-old Furlong returns to the Conservation Service in which he served for 18 years and rose to become an assistant regional supervisor.

He has been secretary of the Tourist Council since 1947 and is recognized as one of the nation's leading authorities on tourism.

Furlong will replace Clifford Ketcham, of Lansing, who retired as Conservation Commission secretary in December. Furlong will assume his new post in April.

A native of the Trout Lake area of Chippewa county, Furlong worked with his father as a logger in the winter months as a young man, and became a fire warden in the Trout Lake area. In 1931 he was promoted by the Conservation Department to assistant dis-

If Wide-Track is as hot as Pontiac says, why don't they put it in their Tempest?

They just did.

We can take a hint. When people are as happy with something as Pontiac owners are with Wide-Track, we're willing—nay, eager—to let everybody else in on it. That's why Tempest has a Wide-Track of its own this year. It's why you get to choose between a lively 4 and a 326-cu. in. V-8, too. We aim to please—and if we do say so, we're pretty accurate. *Optional at extra cost.
